PARIS MAY RECALL EMBOYS TO GENOA; SUMMON POINCARÉ

BY WILBUR FORREST
(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

PARIS, April 21.—Louis Barthou, chief of the French delegation here, today Premier Poincaré in Paris, appealing to him to come to Genoa to prevent a break-up in the economic conference.

The French Premier that the position of the Paris delegates here is untenable in view of the strict instructions they are working under, and he asked that Poincaré come to Genoa himself and take responsibility for future negotiations with the Germans and Russians.

Barthou's message was dispatched after the conference had received the Russian reply to the Allied program for reconstruction of Russia and had found that reply acceptable as a basis of an understanding. The German reply, yielding to exclusion from sessions of the conference commission on Russian affairs as the price of keeping the Russo-German treaty intact also had been received.

GENERALLY SATISFACTORY

The Russian and German replies were generally satisfactory to the Allies, particularly to Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain, who had drafted the original Entente communications, but they proved extremely embarrassing to the French delegates.

Earlier in the day Barthou had been instructed by Premier Poincaré to withdraw from the conference unless the Germans and Russians agreed absolutely to the resolutions drawn up at Cannes declaring that questions affecting the Treaty of Versailles and Germany's war bill should not be discussed at Genoa. Barthou has been unable to have these subjects barred officially from consideration and being embarrassed by the Russian and German replies, he has decided to appeal to Poincaré to come to Genoa to put through the program upon which he insists.

POINCARÉ'S MESSAGE

Poincaré's message was drafted after consultation with members of his cabinet and with the Russian and German replies. It embodied the determination of the French government not to permit any discussion of the Treaty of Versailles and Germany's war bill, as it is in the hands of the Russian and German treaty which it allowed to

RUSSIA BOTHERS PONTIFF

Holy See Undecided About Recognition of Soviet; May Await Action at Genoa

(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

ROME, April 21.—The Holy See is debating whether to recognize the Soviet, if the Genoa conference decides to do so, or to postpone recognition until the Russian situation is clearer. Pius XI is strongly inclined to adopt the former course and so end an extraordinary situation, for the representative of the Holy See is now accredited to the old Russian regime.

The Jesuits, who recently made a formal demand of Lenin for permission to enter Russia to do relief work, have received no reply, and probably the Pope will press their demand before deciding to acknowledge the Soviet.

The Pope's encyclical was to have been issued shortly before Easter; then Pius decided to wait to get some definite information from the Genoa conference. His "publication is imminent, therefore all here expect its appearance any moment. Pius XI is very reticent about it so it is possible His Holiness may postpone publication two or three days, but even he is not sure owing to the chaotic state of affairs in the Genoa conference.

Regarding its contents it is probable they will be far less political and more religious than His Holiness at first intended. There will still be reference to the world's need and desire of peace, but stress will be laid on Christian life in the family and Christianity in social life. There will also be mention of various centuries in the Catholic church celebrates this year; for instance, those of Saint Ignace and Theresa, the century of Catholic missions and of the meeting of the Eucharist congress, which takes place here next month. Nevertheless, correspondents are warned at the Vatican to observe caution regarding all this advance information despite the fact that the Vatican itself is giving it.

"At the last moment His Holiness may change his entire encyclical. He is writing it entirely in his own hand without consulting any of his entourage; therefore, nobody has a definite idea of what it contains how long it will be or when it will be issued."

ASTOR RAPS HEARST

Unfair Attitude; Defends Prohibition; Home Comes First

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW YORK, April 21.—Lord and Lady Astor went to the theatre last night since their arrival from England on the day before. The Astors' day report for Baltimore, where Lady Astor, is to address the Pan-American Lord Astor said: "Let the rich drink if they want to; it won't hurt anyone but themselves." She thought liquor dulled the brain and for that reason disliked it.

ENGLAND IS FAIR

"If you people want liquor put it to a vote, but you will never get it."

The contention that England was unfair attitude toward prohibition in this country attracted British bitters and unfairly.

"Every time I see a Hearst paper, I find a dig at England," she said. "Why, if any one in the House of Commons makes a slur upon the United States, he is howled down, but in the Senate when unfair statements are made about England there seems to be no one to deny them."

Lord Astor laughed when asked if it were true that "Spiritualism was sweeping England," as Sir Conan Doyle has said. "I don't think Spiritualism has anything to do with religion," he said. "Let Sir Arthur take Spiritualism, but leave religion alone."

De la Bass, following his escape, fled into the hills and hid in a cave which, when searched yesterday, contained enough food and ammunition to last a month. A 40-caliber revolver was also found. READY TO INVAD RUHR; MENACE TO PEACE OF EUROPE

PARIS, April 21.—The French government has determined to take vigorous steps to bring pressure upon Germany. The government hopes to obtain the co-operation of the Allies therein, but, if the Allies decline, France will act alone. This is the substance of a statement made to representatives of the Paris press by Premier Poincaré last night. Its first and not the least ominous consequence was a sudden drop in the temperature of press comment.

Oil Reserve is Attacked by Senator

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Charges that influential oil companies are being permitted to exploit the Navy oil reserves under leases granted by Secretary of the Interior Fall will be aired in the Senate in connection with a resolution of inquiry introduced today by Senator La Follette of Wisconsin.

Former Secretary of the Navy Daniels will arrive tomorrow to help Senator La Follette lead the attack on the Harding administration policy of sharing the Navy reserve oil with the oil companies. Daniels asserts that the Harding administration has yielded a special privilege to the oil companies, which will be introduced by Secretary Fall as protective measures primarily and the Secretary has ended a focus of Russian naval camouflage as police already con-

Foreign Diplomats Accused of Lining up Nationals to Protect Interests of Native Countries

(BY HENRY WALES
(BY CABLE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

GENOA, April 21.—The activities of foreign diplomats in the United States in lining up the nationals of their respective countries for organizing solid votes in American political campaigns are being freely discussed in European circles and by American business men and politicians touring the continent.

The French alone, through the agency of French colonists in the United States, are not attempting to obtain a Gallic bloc and the British are confining their efforts to straight diplomatic lobbying.

The Greeks, Poles and Slovaks all are engaged in consolidating their children to vote solidly henceforth.

The Italians have succeeded better so far. Signor Ricci, the new ambassador, practically abandoning his diplomatic work to tour the cities containing Italian colonies, where he is making speeches urging his fellow-countrymen to become naturalized so they can vote and cast their ballots untidily to protect Italian interests.

Former Premier Giolitti first realized the tremendous advantage of directing a solid Italian vote in America from Rome during the Wilson campaign when the excitement over the Democratic stand on Fiume was at its height.

The foreign diplomats in their speeches are urging their countrymen to become naturalized, saying this will abolish hyphenism, but beneath the camouflage this reason is detected—to obtain votes.

The Greeks are anxious to line up the voters against the Turks and are carrying on propaganda against the strong pro-Armenian circles in America in order to retain Thrace. The Poles and Germans in America also are working among their nationals to gain support in their bitter fight.

The parents and six of the twelve children of the family were ordered to report to police headquarters.

POSTPONE TARIFF DEBATE

Senate Agrees to Put Bill Over Until Monday After Democrats Ask for More Time

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

WASHINGTON, April 21.—Officially the tariff bill was before the Senate today, but it received scant attention that Republican leaders finally acquiesced in a request of the Democrats that further consideration of it be deferred until Monday. By that time the minority expects to be ready to proceed with the general deliberation of the measure.

When the bill was called up today by Chairman McCumber, the Finance Committee, Senator King, Democrat, Utah, took the floor and after a reference to the tariff lauded into a nearly four-hour discussion of the Mexican situation.

After his address Senator Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, had the Senate Clerk read a lengthy newspaper account of a speech by Senator Moore, Republican, New Hampshire, in which the agricultural bloc and many other things were discussed. This over, Senator Capper, Kansas, the Republican whip, demanded the regular order, which was consideration of the tariff bill.

Senator Harrison requested that the tariff bill go over until Monday, saying the Democrats had not had time to prepare themselves for the tariff fight. He added that there was no disposition on the minority side unnecessarily to delay the bill and that time would be saved and consideration of the measure expedited if it went over.

Sensor McCumber said he was glad to hear this declaration, as he had "been unable to connect up" the speech of Senator King with the tariff. Senator King insisted that he had discussed the bill for an hour and remarked that if Senator McCumber had been present he would have known it. The North Dakota Senator replied that he had been present for two hours and in that time heard little about tariff.

BERLIN FILLED WITH RUSSIANS

Police Worried by Influx of Refugees

Former Nobles Working in

Eating-houses

German Press Excited Over

Alien Influence

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

BERLIN, April 21.—Hundreds of Russian refugees are flocking here on every train. The arrivals have settled themselves in a section of the city which they occupy almost to the exclusion of other nationalities, and have opened their own restaurants, clubs and theatres. Some of the Russians are wealthy, but most of them are penurious.

ARE POLICE PROBLEM

The police have found them a problem, and have little commerce with the Germans. The greatest difficulty found in compelling the immigrants to observe the 1 o'clock closing regulations.

New police regulations customarily require that the customers

beginning dinner after midnight and continuing their eating and drinking until daylight.

In several of these restaurants former wealthy Russians are working as waiters, cooks or entertainers. A prince and his wife, a baron, and another of their countrymen constitute the orchestra. In one small eating place, they were bankrupted by the revolution and must work or starve.

Profiteers who made fortunes out of the Russian revolution frequent the cafes in this quarter, where they have become conspicuous in the night life because of their lavish expenditures.

CHARACTER LOST

The German newspapers complain that the great influx of Russians has deprived Berlin of its "German character." One paper asserts that Germany's capital city has become "a foreign colony, as surely as it would have become if our enemies had marched in and taken it." Another declares Germans have become "guests in their own homeland."

Government quarters, which have shown little concern for the financial state of the refugees, have suddenly become intensely interested in the new arrivals, particularly from Poland and Russia, fearing an epidemic of typhus and cholera. German Red Cross physicians have warned the government that unless closer border controls can be maintained an epidemic in the spring is certain. The German Red Cross has also notified the government that there is danger of the Russians carrying the plague to America, unless great care is taken to prevent the dissemination of the disease. The United States has also been notified of the danger.

Investigate Tong Assassination

(BY A. P. WIRE.)

BUTTE, April 21.—Investigation of police into the assassination of M. Y. Leong, developed that Leong was president of the Bing "Yong Tong in Butte.

Leong was the third assassin of a Chinese president to meet his death by assassination within a period of a year.

AND Fire Department Cars as well! Boys and girls will be glad to attend their own Automobile Show at Robinson's on Saturday. It's spring—everyone wants to drive and let the scenery slip by, and it is twice as much fun to be behind the wheel of one's own car.

These bear the name of the grown-up cars which they so closely resemble. The Cole, Pierce Arrow, Dort, King 8, Stutz, Packard 6, Lexington, Paige and others are on display. The colors are right—green, red, blue, tan—and so is the upholstery.

The Automobile Show begins at 9:00 and lasts all day. No tickets required.

The Hook and Ladder machine has five ladders that are strong enough to hold the weight of a good-sized boy. The Fire Chief has a large bell which may be rung continuously to clear the boulevard of traffic. The Fire Engine car comes roaring up with the smoke pouring out of the nickel-plated firebox. The fireman rides on the rear step.

Of course there will be need of speed, so there is a high speed gear on each car. The gas tank in the back, the bumpers, the horn, the wire spokes—there are many things which are necessary to the well-equipped car.

Here are the brand new features: Disc wheels, which are, moreover, roller bearing; wind wings; wind-shield wiper; spot lights; open ventilator; individual mud guards; license plate; motometer.

The first little man wears a black tuxedo Cape with a lovely blue chiffon cape underneath it and a hat to match. The Cape is priced at $40.00 and the Hat at $20.00. Her wee chum is looking her prettiest in a corn colored chiffon frock priced at $16.75.

How to Fight

Frosts Will be Discussed

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)

COVINA, April 21.—The Frost Prevention Convention to be held here April 29 is receiving the attention of citrus and other fruit growers all the way from San Francisco to San Diego, and a very large attendance is expected.

Chairman Rastkin of the arrangements committee reports advice from points covering Southern California, and all over the fruit belt of the San Joaquin Valley to the effect that large quantities are coming, and there is no doubt of a heavy attendance of growers within easy driving distance.

A variety of devices for preventing orchards freezing by the stirring of the air, or by blowing frost, and growers who have tested them will be present to tell of results attained. Very remarkable results have been obtained in raising temperature are reported for some of these inventions. Other processes of new heating methods and their application in general, the convention will assemble all the advanced ideas in frost fighting, with the inventor in the witness box.

On the other hand interested fruit growers will be present by hundreds, and the meeting will be open to them for fullest investigation and cross examining of all new heating methods and their application in general, the convention will assemble all the advanced ideas in frost fighting, with the inventor in the witness box.

The most important feature of the Frost-Prevention Convention, a combined exhibition by the schools of Northern California, Santa Ana, San Dimas, La Verne, Claremont, Puente, Baldwin Park, Charter Oak, El Monte and Covina, will also fall upon this day. A street parade will be made at 10 o'clock, a barbecue luncheon will be served at noon, and the afternoon will be filled with amusement events.

AT KERNEL IN

EAR KILLS MAN

Sprouting Seed Brings on Meningitis, Which is Fatal

(BY A. P. HUNT WIRE)

NEW HAVEN (Ct.) April 21.—An oat kernel which became lodged in the right ear of Peter Everson two weeks ago and sprouted, brought on meningitis from which Everson died in a hospital here last night.

Everington as the "Car of the Police Department," as he wanted to be known.

MAYOR'S STATEMENT

The Mayor's statement follows: "My action in removing Chief Everson was taken only after mature consideration and deliberation."

"After some days he has been issuing statements to the newspapers, which, to say the least, indicate a most pronounced lack of tact and judgment which should characterize a man charged with the duty of directing the affairs of the police department of a great city."

"Everyone who heard any considerable part of the testimony adduced at the hearing of the charges preferred against Chief Everson and Chief Gifford knows that the Chief made a mistake in removing these officers."

"The Police Commissioners were a unit in their desire to help the Chief out of the embarrassing situation in which his ill-advised action had placed him."

CHARGES FAIL

"Realizing full well, after going over the matter with him in executive session, that he could not support his charges by any tangible evidence, the commission laid aside precedent and required the accused officers to proceed with their evidence without a showing first having been made by the Chief."

"We took this action over the vehement protest of the accused, because we were well aware that to expose the weakness of his case would tend to discredit the Chief and expose him to danger of being humiliated."

"We hoped that after hearing evidence showing the character and reputation of the officers he had removed, and his friends realizing the mistake, and that he would himself acknowledge his error and restore the men to duty."

CHIEF STANDS PAT

"After hearing overwhelming evidence on the part of the accused, we urged the Chief to publicly acknowledge his error and restore the men to duty. This he declined to do."

"When we were finally compelled to call upon the Chief for some showing, he could offer practically nothing. Even his own witnesses testified that the accused were efficient officers and ought to be restored to duty."

"In making its decision, the commission went to the very limit in its endeavor to indicate that there had been some justification for the Chief's action. It was the earnest prayer of the commission that the Chief would do so, and that he would do so in the face of his constant attack upon me, but I cannot allow him to publicly abuse my fellow-commissioners for fearlessly doing their duty."

NOT ONLY MAN

"The cause of law enforcement is not inseparably bound up in Col. Everson. The man who imagines that all the honor and integrity in the community is embodied in himself is in error."

"The Police Commission is just as thoroughly committed to the policy of vigorously enforcing the law as Col. Everson. That policy will be strictly adhered to and followed. The law-breaker, big or little, need expect no quarter in this city."

"It is a matter of deepest regret and disappointment to me that the Chief must go. But I am convinced that he is temperamentally unfit for the position he held."

"If anyone doubts that statement let him go carefully over the matter with which the Chief has been flooding the newspapers during the past few weeks."

"The Chief has stated that he will welcome the opportunity to retire to the quiet of his home, and believe that is true."

"I am sure that I have nothing but the kindest feeling toward him, and wish him well."

REINSTATE OFFICERS

The first action of Acting Chief of Police Lee Heath following the dismissal of Chief of Police James W. Everson yesterday was to order the reinstatement of Capt. William Spellman and Lieut. A. W. Gifford.

The order of Acting Chief of Police Heath was announced by Inspector McDowell. Capt. Spellman was appointed in charge of Central Division, displacing Lieut. Hagenaugh, who returns to University Division.

Lieut. Gifford was assigned to plain-clothes duty at Hollywood station, the post he held prior to his transfer as head of the night squad.

Capt. Murray announced the withdrawal of his application for retirement and was returned to duty in command of Wilshire Division.

HOSPITAL EMPLOYEE HURT

As he was walking across the Mission Road trestle of the Pacific Electric line last night, C. R. Taylor, an employee of the French Hospital, was struck by a Southern Pacific train. He fell to the ravine fifteen feet below, and was taken to the County Hospital suffering from a fracture of the right leg.

Dad Meek Out With Challenge for Championship

Secretary Foreman to Plan Schedule Tuesday

BY ED OMALLEY
The next big thing in the preliminary doings of the Pacific Coast Bowling Congress meeting, which comes off here at the Angeles alleyways April 23 and runs until May 18, will be the all-day tournament tomorrow at the Eldorado alleys corner Third and Main streets, run by Dad Meek. At these alleys the "A" bowlers will stage their battle while Max Ames at Ocean Park will entertain the "B" men.

The following teams will get into action at the Eldorado alleys: Globe Ice Cream Co., Gene Murphy's, Faby Ford, Nebraska Clothing Co., La Shell Cement Co., Ramon Tires, Green Mills, Brunswick Tires, El Roi Tan Cigars, Harris & Frank, Anaheim and the Hammond Lumber Co.

MEEK'S DEVI
During the great struggle last Wednesday night between the Faby Ford and the Globe Ice Cream Co. at the Angeles alleys, Dad Meek dropped in and challenged the winner in behalf of Gene Murphy's squad. Dad specified a home and home affair. If the match is consummated, it will be played about the middle of next week.

Meek is admittedly the best southpaw bowler in Southern California. Each year Meek comes forward with a challenge to anybody who can beat him in a cross-the-house match for the championship. For five consecutive years the Angel catcher has won the Pacific Coast championship in cross-house bowling.

WILL ACCEPT
Around the Angeles alleys it is the general opinion that Harry Hopping will accept Meek's challenge. In case the match is made, it will probably come off immediately after the Pacific Coast Bowling Congress tournament is finished.

Both Meek and Hopping have a big following and the contest would be sure to draw packed houses. Among the impartial, the consensus of opinion is that the men are about equally matched, but that either is invincible on his own ground.

SUZANNE WINS IN TOURNAMENT
MONTICELLO, April 21.—Madame Suzanne Lenglen made her first appearance in a tournament singles match since her defeat by Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory in the United States last year, when she played Miss Similes here yesterday. Miss Lenglen did not lose a game of the two sets played.

SPORT SHRAPNEL

By HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

That fine get-away made by Vic Aldridge against the St. Louis Cardinals recalls a conversation with Red Killefer during the spring training.

Vic on the mound for the Cubs in an exhibition game the day before had been hopelessly wild. I asked Red if he thought Aldridge would be steady enough to win in the majors, and could field his position up to big league standards. Killefer's reply was emphatically in the affirmative. Red had thought well enough of Vic to enthusiastically recommend him to St. Louis, and while the average manager prides himself on his ability as a trader, he seldom will knowingly recommend a bloomer.

When Aldridge came to the Coast League, some presumably wise party whispered to me that he had been bunted out of the American Association, and the same thing would happen to him here. And looking over the rather rotund heaver with a tendency to poutiness the prediction sounded reasonable. He isn't built for fielding.

Yet nothing of the kind happened. And there is a reason. If Aldridge could be bunted enough, he probably could be bunted clear out of the business. But he has speed, and he has wide curves, and those are hard things to turn into bunts.

Recently a misprint or an error on my part caused the statement to appear in this column "that to our way of thinking, Henry Reits was the most scientific batter that ever handled ash." Substitute bunter for batter and you have the meaning intended.

Willie Keister's ability as a place hitter probably has never been approximated. His favorite space was that unhabited territory just over the heads of the infielders and too short for the outer gardeners.

Reits could lay down a spinning bunt, generally too close in for the pitcher or third baseman, and which was exceedingly hard for the catcher to handle. Also, he had the trick of reversing his bat after the pitcher had started to deliver, and bunting with the handle of it. This gave his work a finesse which is not seen today.

Harry Heilmann's natural system of batting won him his top place in the American League last season. Now he says that he won't let well enough alone, but will hit at fewer bad balls in the present season. Dangerous business.

Some men are natural bad-ball hitters, and many really great batters have turned a lot of near-wild pitches into base hits. Babe Ruth misses a lot of good balls, and lands on numerous bad ones. He is able to hit bad balls in an emergency is a real attainment. It keeps many a hit-and-run from going fluey.

When Sam Crawford was with Detroit, I saw him reach out and give a wide pitch a mighty swipe while holding his bat in one hand. The ball traveled almost to the fence on the line for a double, and the man on, of course, scored. Hans Wagner could crack them far and wide.

There probably is no batter in the business who hits more bad balls than Rogers Hornsby. That is, they would be bad balls for the average batter. Hornsby has long legs and arms, is rangy and loose-jointed. This gives him a long reach. He can adjust himself to any position at the plate rapidly, and meet a ball from almost any direction. He can golf the low ones, swing on the wide ones and reach up and lean the high ones. Hornsby, because of his loose-jointedness, pliability and adjustability, I believe, creates a wider batting zone for himself at the plate than any player in the country, not excepting the large Ruth and the rangier George Kelly.

BEAVERS EVEN UP THE SERIES

PORTLAND, April 21.—Portland won today's game from Oakland, 6 to 3, and made the series even. The Beavers all gained their batting average stimulating in their seventh inning when two were out, when five men in a row hit safely and drove in four runs.

ONLY TWO TENNIS PLAYERS COMING

NEW YORK, April 21.—Upon receiving definite word today from Laurence Rice, Boston, that he had not sufficiently recovered from a recent operation to exercise strenuously, the New York Lawn Tennis Association decided to send only two instead of three men to East vs. West tournament in San Francisco next month.

William Tilden II and Vincent Richards will compose the team. The suggestion will be made that the matches be played as in the Davis cup tournament, four singles and two doubles spread over three days.

AD SANTEL WINS
PORTLAND (Or.) April 21.—Ad Santel, light-heavyweight wrestling champion of the world, retained his title in a match here tonight with Louis Pergantaris of Boston. Santel won in two straight falls, the first in 33 minutes, 20 seconds with short-arm scissors and the second in 12 minutes with a leg hold and arm lock.

WINS FROM RECRUIT

New York, April 21.—Shawkey, veteran Yankee hurler, won a pitching duel from Phillips, Washington recruit, here today, 1 to 0.

The only run of the game was scored by Fowler in the first inning on his two-base hit and two wild throws by Lamotte. The score:

Team	W	L	P
Washington	0	1	0

WINS FROM RECRUIT

ST. LOUIS, April 21.—Dave Danforth started his major victory here this afternoon, the Browns finally won, 5 to 1, in ten innings. Charlie Robertson, one of Danforth's former American League teammates, pitched for the White Sox. The Sox tied the score in the ninth with two forced runs and a run batted in. The tenth settled the contest. The score:

Team	W	L	P
St. Louis	1	0	0
Chicago	0	1	0

MITCHELL FANS NINE SENATORS

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—Mitchell's exploit in fanning nine men and an exciting ninth-inning finish were responsible for San Francisco's 4-to-3 victory over Sacramento today. The winning run was made by Vaila, who ran for Yella after the latter doubled.

An attempt to catch Vaila between bases merely resulted in his scooting safely to third, where a single by T. Wilson brought him home. The Seals made three double plays.

VEEDOL MOTOR OILS AND GREASES

Time for Veedol Crankcase Service

This explains why—pour a quart of spring water into a mud puddle and you still have a mud puddle. Pour a quart of fresh oil into a crankcase containing low quality, broken down oil and you still have a mud puddle to protect your motor.

Have your crankcase drained, flushed and refilled with Veedol today—and every 500 miles. Note the new pick-up and sustained power on the hills. Note how you can follow slow traffic in high. Note the added mileage from your gas.

Insist upon genuine Veedol, the Pennsylvania product. It is especially refined under the exclusive Penn process to resist deadly heat and friction—and it does. Look for the orange and black sign.

APPEALS FOR BOY

The bedtime story last night was

Times RADIO DEPARTMENT

LESSON 21 By G. C. Farmer

So many reports have been received by The Times telling of interference troubles that a few words on selective tuning may be of interest. Interference or "jamming" of stations is a common complaint and is experienced by every owner of a receiving set.

At the present stage of radio development it is not possible to tune out every unwanted station, yet it is possible to eliminate a large number of them, and attain to the desired station. A station in Los Angeles can receive from Los Angeles several thousand miles distant, while a number of close-by stations are sending. It is possible to read the French station at Lafayette, France (listening to the French government by the United States), without being bothered in the least by local interference. Honolulu, Guam, Cavite and Davao can be brought in and no inconvenience caused by nearby high-powered stations. The process of making one station audible and setting it out of others is called selective tuning. It is done by varying the capacities and inductances of the receiver in such a way as to bring in one station and eliminate others.

Take two bells of equal weight and ring one with a hammer. If the other is not too far away it will ring also. Any vibration occurring in one will also take place in the other. This phenomenon is called resonance and is due to sound waves of the proper length emanating from the hammer bell impinging themselves on the struck bell. Ring a small bell and it will not cause a large one to vibrate. Ring a large bell and it will not noticeably affect a small one. They must be of equal dimensions.

In radio, in order to receive from a certain transmitting station it is necessary that the receiver be adjusted to correspond with the transmitter. Wireless receiving sets may be likened to variable bells which can be enlarged or made smaller by the manipulation of condenser and inductance units to catch the various-sized waves sent out by transmitting stations. Each transmitter should send on a different wave length, be it ever so slight, from any other transmitter, thus enabling the receiver to distinguish it from others.

Selective tuning can be accomplished with the apparatus sold by radio dealers on the Pacific Slope, and is a property very much desired. It is very annoying to be listening to a concert and have it suddenly drowned out by spark signals superimposed upon a receiver lacking in selectivity. The fault may not always be in the receiver, however. A great deal rests upon the operator whether one signal can be separated from another or not. Much depends on the skill of the person at the instrument.

While it is commonly said that five years' actual experience is required to mould a full-fledged wireless operator, yet this does not mean that the average person cannot sit down before a radio receiving set and pick up music. They can—easily. It is as simple as A.B.C. or driving and automobile to tune to different radiotelephones in this vicinity—and twice as fascinating.

The human ear is capable of receiving tones having vibrations as high as 20,000 or a little higher per second. Children's ears act up to this rate, but as they grow older the period at which they will receive is greatly limited. Above 20,000 beats the ear will not function and all sound in excess of this limit is greatly diminished. We are not ordinarily aware of the ear can, by practice, be made to center on one sound, shutting out all extraneous noises. All wireless operators have to learn to do this. In this way the part of the secret of selective tuning. Most receivers are made to operate mechanically, but it takes an educated hand to compel them to do so.

The Times suggests to the buyer unless he is skilled in the use of wireless apparatus, ascertain from the manufacturer how to operate it. There are hundreds of different combinations to the modern receiver and it is best to get the dealer to demonstrate. It is also wise to take a few notes down on your cuff. While it is simple once you know how to twist the knobs and shift the various switches, it is just as in driving an auto—it takes a certain amount of practical knowledge.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

C. D. M. Los Angeles: What is the difference between radiophone and radiotelegraph receiving sets? Answer: There is no difference.

L. H. Second: Is it possible to receive The Times concert at this point (about 100 miles) with a crystal receiving set using a single wire antenna? Answer: It is unlikely you could hear us with a crystal detector. We advise you to get a short-wave regenerative receiver and then you'll have no trouble. If you wish to hear our signals very loud it is advisable to get a two-step amplifier to go with the receiver.

M. D. Oxnard: Can I receive music from The Times broadcast station with a vacuum tube type receiver set described in lesson No. 57? Answer: Possibly, but you will have to use a vacuum tube type receiver.

Concerts Given by Children Draw Crowds

Instrumental music in the public schools was well exemplified yesterday when the Junior orchestra gave two programs in Philharmonic Auditorium, under the direction of Miss Jennie Jones, supervisor of music in the public schools.

One hundred and seventy-five children, all under 12 years of age, took part in the concert, to the delight of several thousand persons who crowded the house to hear and admire the playing of the youngsters. While they did not undertake "heavy" selections, they played single compositions with ease and harmony. Melba French Barr sang several selections.

Miss Jones was assisted in the production by Miss Mary E. Ludwig, Miss Alma L. Stickle, Miss Lorna A. Reavis and Miss Grace M. Dering, members of the musical faculty. It was thought last night that at least $2000 would be cleared by the two entertainments. The funds will be used to buy musical instruments for the children.

Mayor Cryer

Robert Emmett Elsey, 22 years of age, who is reported missing from the Navy at San Diego, was sent out last night by The Times broadcasting station:

"Please say his mother wants him, is longing for him to return to the home and mother's love which awaits him."

Robert Emmett Elsey is described as dark, round face, large eyes, weight 150 pounds, height five feet five inches, scar on his neck under left ear.

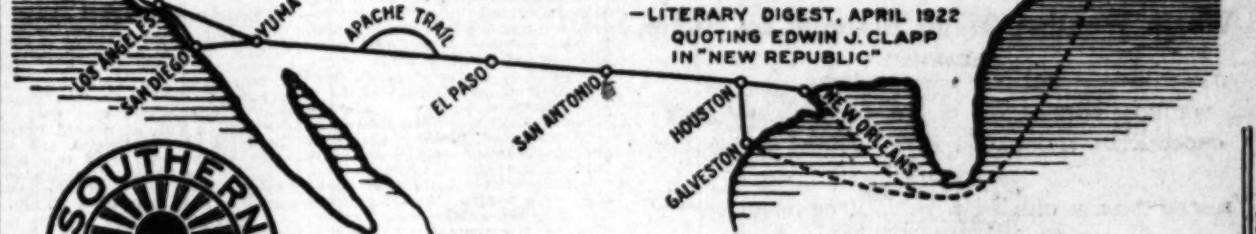

Radio enthusiasts were delighted last night by Melba French Barr, one of the most versatile young artists to arrive in California, when she sang from The Times broadcasting station. TRIBUTE PAID TO MRS. OSGOOD

Friday Morning Club Honors President Emeritus

Thirty-first Anniversary is Celebrated

Gov. Stephens is Among the Guests Present

BY MYRA NYE

With expressions of love from the whole membership of the Friday Morning Club yesterday the Caroline Osgood endowment fund was established by the thirty-four living charter members, thus celebrating the thirty-first anniversary of the organization.

Capt. John Osgood and Mrs. Osgood, the latter one of the charter members and president emerita of the club, together with Gov. Stephens and Mrs. A. S. Lohmeyer, president of the club said, came not as Governor but as one of the club husbands, were honor guests of the day.

Capt. Osgood sang as has been his custom for many years past on similar anniversaries the old English ballad, "Mary of Araby," a tribute to his wife and their forty-four years union. In spite of the very young student organization in the Southland to conduct a meeting by radio-phonograph.

Miss Permelia Thompson, president of the student organization, showed emotion only at the mention of the fact that it was the last of the club that it was the last of the clubhouses.

The program of the morning was a most exceptional one. The musical recital given for the club during the current year. Charming, pretty Elizabeth Bennett, using three groups of songs that so delighted her audience that some were called from the audience in the midst of the recital. "Tell us about Miss Bennett and her wonderful voice. Who is she?"

Kajetan A. Atti, a Bohemian born in Prague, a harpist of note and known in Europe for his artistry, who was the means of bringing Miss Bennett from San Francisco, then told how her voice had shown such promise that arrangements had been made for her to come to New York and later to Europe where she will study with the very best masters.

The blending of the harp with Miss Bennett's coloratura soprano was a climax of harmony.

The comedy "Belinda" which will be produced at the club next Friday by Ellen Galpin will be repeated the following Saturday in the clubhouse for the benefit of the "Fishing fund" of $50,000 for the new clubhouse, which must be raised by July 1.

It is always well to have another viewpoint or opinion expressed regarding a subject you are absolutely "sold" on, and how truly satisfying it would be to have of hamburger's grocery department to find every woman's approval of the "Fernell" brand of canned and bottled goods unanimous. Customers may buy a single can of any one of the most delectable foods put up under the name of "Fernell," but that one can "turns the trick" and never fails to bring a repeat order, so that while hamburger's are one noted for their high-class grocery department they are also famous as having the exclusive handling of "Fernell" goods.

Anti-Pest showed those of my readers who used it last summer to get rid of the ants, what an excellent product it was. Now they have gained further knowledge as to its remarkable powers as a disinfectant, destroyer of moths and eradicator of germs. If a representative hasn't visited your neighborhood explaining in detail the real necessity for Anti-Pest in a home, he doubtless will soon. Horace Moll & Co., 720 W. Ninth, is the manufacturer. Call him at 44843. If your grocer can't supply you, a better order at the same time. Floral Anti-Pest, which absolutely destroys aphids on your rose bushes and ornamental plants.

An old-fashioned dandy was delighted with the can of "Super" metal polish which was given her recently to use. "For come, honey, we all never used it before!" she said, "for it sure does shine every thing it touches, and is the best polish this old nigger ever did see." You will agree with her for Super metal polish, which is the best polish for your hands either. Phone Broadway 4484 if you have any difficulty securing a can.

If you should ask what part of the family washing "The Clean" Laundry did best, the question would be answered thusly: "All parts," for each time I get the plant I am better pleased with the work they turn out. If you could see the plant and with your own eyes you would be certain that your daintiest linens and sheerest hand-made muslins could be trusted to their capable hands and every assurance felt for their safe return. It's a pleasure to recommend such a laundry to Los Angeles women.

What would you have this week? Vignolo's, who were at 177 N. State St. is filled with the most palate-tempting imported goods purchasable from all over the world. Is your supply of sardines getting low? Prices of this canned fish have been lowered as also has Castuccio Brothers' virgin olive oil. Don't miss this splendid opportunity and remember that a phone call at Pico 130 or 1211 will be given as much attention as though you called personally.

Ammonia has always been a household necessity, but with a bottle of Bobrick's Genuine Cloudy Ammonia, which is such a superior product, the value of this cleaning fluid has increased 50 per cent. It won't injure your hands, fabrics nor effect fast colors, but loosens dirt, grease and actually renders shiny black, which has lost its original luster. It's Bobrick's Genuine Cloudy Ammonia which you must insist upon, because of imitations.

Good, sound logic in the words "In time of peace prepare for war," especially when remembering that we would be on much more agreeable terms with our neighbors, if we had just such a wafer in Sweet Brannies, most agreeable and satisfying, balancing the diet and just fills up that empty space.

How do you suppose we ever existed before we knew about McDonald's Roof Garden Chocolate? The little folks have it for breakfast, luncheon again means more of this perfectly delicious chocolate. Guests who drop in during the afternoon are treated to wafers and a cup of coffee, which finishes the day and brings much-needed sleep. As well as even a wafer should be able to supply your needs, so great is the demand for McDonald's Roof Garden Chocolate.

Need any old cloth? Albert S. Walters, 215 S. Main carries an extensive line of this very necessary household material, which he sells unusually reasonably.

Back to good, old home-made Boston baked beans. Have you eaten these made by the Food Shop, 131 E. Western avenue? Simply delicious!

If most of us kept closer to Mother Nature for our sustenance we would be on much more agreeable terms with our neighbors, for it seems almost a miracle that a glass of L. A. Milk is as nutritious as a T-bone steak. The cows are constantly examined, every conceivable form of sanitation is religiously adhered to, that's why L. A. Milk is especially essential for the baby as well as the grown-up, containing the five food principles that keep our systems in proper order. L. A. Milk will run your health motor smoothly.

Still debating where to eat Sunday dinner? Must be you aren't acquainted with Mora's Grill, 107 W. Market St., one-half block south of the Postoffice, between Main and Main. A typical Sunday dinner is to be served tomorrow. Excellent food, cooked to a turn, make as numerous courses partake of the value of a banquet. Better make an immediate reservation.

Summer time is a saving time! The materials like the dress and evening gown, 124 E. Los Angeles, are using this year are more "transferred" better than ever. Such a vast improvement to every home, too. Beautifying, yet at the same time protecting rugs, furniture, drapes and curtains from the destroying rays of the sun.

Now that the warm weather has finally arrived, everyone is wearing white shoes. An economical way to clean them at home, Angelus White Dressings are so easy to apply and give such satisfactory results. The polish for White Glazed Kid is "Glossy," and Buck and No-Buck require Angelus "Composolite." "Arctic White" is the dressing for canvas. All of these very reliable polishes preserve and clean the materials on which they are used, at a small expense. Insist upon Angelus products, which the better drug, shoe and department stores carry.

The routine of planning and serving meals daily is a hard job, but there are plenty of "first aid" helpers, especially for breakfast. It is at this important meal that the spring-time loiterer over the morning meal is piqued by the anticipation of hot breakfast. The simple can be made, even on the advent of hot weather—just add cold milk to the cereal, drop in a pan a little at a time, and quickly when served, the delicately browned and crisp marmalade, are a treat for those who are used to be in on such a feast.

To make Baked Cheese Omelet follow this recipe which is particularly delicious and unusually palatable for luncheon. It calls for 1 cup stale bread crumbs, 3 eggs beaten light, 1 pint L. A. milk, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon pepper, 1 pk. L. A. Cheddar cheese, 1 teaspoon hot water, 1-2 bread crumbs, 1-2 cup milk, which has been added soda dissolved in hot water. Add the bread crumbs, cayenne pepper, grated cheese and melted butter. Turn into greased baking dish and bake in oven. Serve immediately when it is puffed and golden brown.

"Have you a catering shop which compares with our establishments of the sort in the East?" a new-comer asked me. I merely led her to Caterers and Confectioners, 641 South Flower street, bade her enter, converse with the saleswoman regarding the ability to cater at any sort of a function, taste one or two of the small cakes and then answer her own question. We all know it was "decidedly, yes."

Now that we have settled down to our California sunshine, it behooves us to refresh ourselves accordingly. Have you ever tried Hughes' Ice Cream for this dryness of the palate sort of sensation and don't disregard the important item of food value. A bit of two of nature's products can compare with pure fruit juices and heavy cream, blended in such perfect proportions, fit for the gods? Hughes' Ice Cream wagons can be seen daily supplying all good drug stores with a luscious Los Angeles confection that prompts people to look for the sign. There's one in your neighborhood. I am sure.

Haven't you often felt that craving sort of feeling for a wafer between meals or at night, with your chocolate or milk before you retire? Genevieve Jackson has produced just such a wafer in Sweet Brannies, most agreeable and satisfying, balancing the diet and just fills up that empty space.

How do you suppose we ever existed before we knew about McDonald's Roof Garden Chocolate? The little folks have it for breakfast, luncheon again means more of this perfectly delicious chocolate. Guests who drop in during the afternoon are treated to wafers and a cup of coffee, which finishes the day and brings much-needed sleep. Do all Glendale folks know that Vitamin Bread is now made and sold in their city? Vitamin Bread is made from 100 per cent complete wheat Vitamin flour, which is ground as fine as common flour on the good old stone mill by a new exclusive process. Vitamin Bread has the same fine texture as ordinary bread, but it contains all the nourishment and food value that nature put in the wheat, which now can be assimilated easier than ever before. Vitamin Bread has that rich golden color and delicious nutty flavor that comes only from the good wheat. Go to the Purity Bakery at 733 East Broadway, and the Glendale Groceries, 118 North Brand Blvd., and try this wonderful bread. For the children it is the discovery of the century!

This is truly ideal picnic weather; why not plan one for tomorrow? "It is such a bother to prepare lunch, didn't you say? You don't have to. Call up the Willshire Community Kitchen, 232 S. Western Ave., and just tell them how many are going. A lunch full of good home-made things will be ready in a jiffy. This is new for you, and a suggestion worth following.

Every woman likes to make changes in the house at spring cleaning time. The corner of the room often comes across various pieces of furniture which can be "transformed" into something new. Having one's own home does mean certain things. One of them is what constitutes "life's little irritations," so surely remarked Jack, the hite shaver, my closet friend. "Nancy's the finest little housekeeper in all the world," he then loudly continued, "yet our coffee somehow or other is a dismal failure!"—but at this point in the conversation I interposed, unable to keep silence any longer, for I knew these two youngsters, and the water was hanging on the ragged edge of nothing needed my saving grace and incidentally helpful advice. I said, "Let's go out this very minute and buy a pound of Jevne's Coffee. It's the best coffee in the world. It will restore perfect peace in your home, you all agree, and I am a constant user of Jevne's splendid blends."

The name "Nox-Ail" gives one somewhat of an idea of what it does to cleaning problems. "They just aren't" after you begin to use this dry ammonia which does so many things which make it a real life saver. For one thing, it makes the soap so much further. For woodwork use Nox-Ail, as a further aid, and you'll never regret it by at hand—you'll never regret it.

Our first real taste of warm weather and its attendant thrills, arousing the spirit to new adventures, caused many new residents in Los Angeles to feel some doubt as to just what to do for pure water, which almost everyone has been educated to know is one of the first necessities for good health. "Old-timers" are convinced there is only one water, namely, Arrowhead, which comes direct from the snow-capped San Bernardino Mountains and is bottled with the greatest care at the Arrowhead Bottling Company's beautiful immaculate plant, delivered to you for a nominal price by phoning South 881.

"How long have I had my Angelus White Enamel Table top?" an inquisitive friend asked. "Just two months," he continued. "And, oh, I cannot begin to tell you what a joy it has been to me. Why did I ever hesitate so long in making up my mind to have one put on my kitchen table. The cost—why it was a trifle—and has been paid a hundred times over in satisfaction I derive from the use of my greatest kitchen asset, namely, the Angelus White Enamel Table. Yes, it's made in Los Angeles, by the Smoot Holman Co., 1500 Santa Fe. Phone Broadway 7984, prices and sizes at Broadway 7984."

Every day and on all sides you hear commendation of each department of Young's markets. One woman will be lavish in her praise of their meats, especially the beef, which is from the finest of steers. Another thing vegetables can't be bought elsewhere to equal Young's in tenderness and freshness, while the third finds it hard to discriminate. She goes to Young's for everything, and wise indeed is she. Are you?

Curtains are being washed, blankets cleaned and put away for the summer, cool dresses are brought forth laundered and donned. All of this means that White King Washing Machine Soap is having a very strenuous season. We don't buy one box now when giving the grocer our order, we buy a dozen boxes, better to have plenty on hand, than too little, for not a day passes but what we find our selves more dependent than ever on this wonderful soap, which is made in a granular form and is economical in the extreme. Absolutely satisfactory, no matter how much you use, and a product which we feel a deeper appreciation as time passes. Do you use it? Have you tried it?—you really must.

PRACTICAL RECIPES

Helps for Epicures and All Who Appreciate Good Cooking

BY CHEF A. L. WYMAN, M.C.A.
(Requests for recipes and information on proper preparation and serving of foods will be answered in this column every Saturday. Address all requests to Chef A. L. Wyman, P. O. Box 99, Station C, Los Angeles—24.)

Among the many requests received during the last week were two that were for the same named dish, but for entirely different recipes. I will have to give two different recipes.

ENGLISH CHEESE CAKE
The English cheese cake is made with a cheese made of lemons, four eggs to a cream with half a cup of sugar and the grated rind of one lemon, beat well and add half a cup of melted butter, the juice of two lemons and the stiffly-beaten white of two eggs. When the ingredients are well beaten, pour into a double boiler and stir over the first until thick, stir constantly. Line tartlet tins with good pastry and fill three-quarters full with the mixture. Bake in a medium oven and when nearly baked remove and brush with soft white and sprinkle with granulated sugar. Return to the oven and brown. This will make twenty-four small cheese cakes served in the English tea room.

APPLE CHEESE CAKES
Peel and core one pound of apples and then grate them. There should be half a pound after grating. To the grated apples add the grated rind of two lemons, one cup of melted butter, one cup of sugar and the well-beaten yolks of six eggs. Mix and fill pastry lined tartlet tins three-quarters full with the mixture. Bake in a quick oven fifteen minutes. This will make thirty-six cheese cakes at cost of 4 cents each. The recipe can be reduced one-half for a smaller amount.

TIVOLI CHEESE CAKE
The pastry used for this cake is called tuchon, or cake dough, and is made by dissolving one cake of yeast in half a cup of warm water. When dissolved, place into a bowl and stir in one cup of sifted flour, one teaspoon of sugar and one-quarter of a cup of sifted flour and mix well. Put in a warm, but not hot place and let rise for one and a half hours. Beat to cream three-quarters of a cup of butter and one cup of sugar and beat until light. Then add the yeast mixture and beat well. When well mixed, add the risen yeast and beat with a wooden spoon for four and a half hours. Dough should not be too stiff.

Roll out very thin the coffee cake and cut into two pie tins that have been well buttered. Let stand to rise for fifteen minutes. Add to the coffee cake mixture the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs and fill the lined pie tins with the mixture. Place quickly in a medium hot oven and bake until a knife blade will leave the mixture clean.

CHERRY CAKE
Line pie tin with the coffee cake dough as for the cheese cake and fill with stoned cherries, save the cherry juice when stoning. Sprinkle sugar over the cherries and place the cakes in the oven. While the cakes are baking, beat four eggs with one cup of sugar and when light, beat in the cherry juice. Beat the cakes to the oven and fill with the egg mixture. Return to the oven and bake until the mixture is clean.

BUTTER CREAM FILINGS
L. O. B. and J. H. M. City, want recipes for butter cream fillings. These fillings, such as mocha, cocoa and fruit flavor. To make the butter cream filling beat four eggs with one cup of sugar and when light, beat in the cherry juice. Beat the cakes to the oven and fill with the egg mixture. Return to the oven and bake until the mixture is clean.

LEMON FRENCH DRESSING
J. B. E. Anaheim would like recipes for lemon French dressing and for Nicolas salad dressing. These fillings, such as mocha, cocoa and fruit flavor. To make the butter cream filling beat four eggs with one cup of sugar and when light, beat in the cherry juice. Beat the cakes to the oven and fill with the egg mixture. Return to the oven and bake until the mixture is clean.

VEAL LOAF
H. L. T. Santa Ana, requests recipes for veal loaf and roast breast of veal cooked as the Jewish restaurants serve them. For the veal loaf mix thoroughly two pounds of finely chopped lean veal with six tablespoons of bread crumbs, two well-beaten eggs, two tablespoons of water, one tablespoon of chicken fat, and a seasoning of salt, pepper, nutmeg and ginger. Place in a well-greased bread pan, lay a piece of chicken fat on top and bake in a medium oven, basting often.

ROAST BREAST OF VEAL
Have the butcher cut a pocket in a breast of veal that is firm, fat and white in color. Wash and rub dry. Rub it well with salt and a little ground ginger. Fill the pocket with bread stuffing. Dredge with flour. Sew up the pocket. Lay in a covered roasting pan and sprinkle over the top a few caraway seeds and a teaspoon of lemon juice. Bake often, allow 30 minutes roasting to the pound.

TUNA A LA MORNAY
F. M. E. Santa Barbara, wants to know how to prepare tuna to make a saucepan two tablespoons of butter, two tablespoons of water, one tablespoon of lemon juice and the contents of a one-pound can of white meat tuna, heat and place on slices of toast and pour over a sauce made by heating in a double boiler one cup of milk and half a cup of cream. Heat four tablespoons of butter and place with three tablespoons of

Fashion Forecast

You should seriously consider making this one-piece, slip-on dress because it is very easy to make, looks attractive, and could be worn for either sport or street wear by the lady or miss. It has neat pockets, with elastic at the waistline to give it a fitted appearance and the sleeves can be made either short or long. It would be attractive and practical in jersey, serge, tulle, tweed or canvas with a half with grosgrain ribbon binding and waist. The pattern cuts in sizes 16 years, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure; size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36-inch material and 3 1/2 yards of 1/2-inch grosgrain ribbon for binding and sash.

SECOND VICTIM OF BLAST DIES

plotted at once the entire town might have been destroyed. The gas station was owned by Newberry & Speaker, who lived in an adjoining house. This building was partially destroyed. A truck from the Richmond Refining Co., operated by M. M. Company, was filling the station's tank. A private car was being loaded.

When the fire broke out a general alarm was sounded. Residents of the town quickly responded. It was the volunteer fire fighters who were injured. A call was sent to the Sheriff's office here and two deputies responded. Upon their arrival they found, however, that the citizens had taken complete charge and had removed the injured to homes and to the Virginia Hospital, which is operated by Dr. E. B. Hays.

CALLS FOR AID

The four operators of the Downey telephone exchange were responsible for the quick call for medical aid. When they heard of the explosion they called the neighboring towns and secured all the doctors and nurses possible. Those on duty at the time were Mrs. Florence Lange, Miss Edith Leary, Miss Victoria Lewis and Miss Amy Lyons. A great deal of suffering was alleviated by their prompt action. It was declared.

One of the first to reach the scene with first aid was W. R. Harriman, superintendent of the County Farm. He took four nurses and three orderlies and first-aid equipment. A few minutes later the medical force was augmented by Dr. D. B. Zbinden of Artesia, Dr. Charles Stein of Bellingham, Dr. L. J. Otis of Norwalk, Dr. E. H. Dahl of Artesia and Dr. A. G. Haygood of Downey.

Many of the injured remained in the Virginia Hospital, where a corps of volunteer nurses attended them. Others were removed to outlying hospitals. Walter Pulley, one of the most seriously injured, was taken to the Artesia Hospital. Mr. Henry was rushed to the California Hospital here, and Robert Plattner was taken to the White Memorial Hospital here.

four, when smooth stir into the heated milk and stir until smooth. Add to the sauce the liquid that the tuna was heated in and four tablespoons of grated cheese, cook until the cheese is melted, and three tablespoons of minced parsley and use.

SHRIMP A LA NEWBURG
L. B. P. City, requests a recipe for shrimp a la Newburg. Melt two tablespoons of butter in a saucepan, stir in two tablespoons of flour and when well blended add one cup of scalded milk and stir until smooth, then add one cup of cream and bring to a boil. Draw to the side of the stove and stir in two beaten egg yolks, two teaspoons of orange juice, one teaspoon of anchovy essence, a seasoning of salt and paprika, and two cups of canned shrimp that have been heated with two tablespoons of butter. When well blended serve on hot toast or in ramekins with pulled bread sticks.

CALIFORNIA DINNER MENU
M. H. A. City, has several friends from Texas and wants a menu that will be typical of California, also wants to know what decorations to use on the table. Southern California produce all the foods that are produced in any other part of the country and a great many that are only grown in this vicinity. At this time of the year we have in our markets fruits and vegetables that are out of season in the eastern and Texas markets. The menu that I would serve at this time of the year would be as follows:

Crab Fluke Cocktail, California
Rice, California
Sautéed Almonds and Walnuts, California
Chicken Pie, Los Angeles
Asparagus, Montclair
Corn Soufflé, California
Iceberg Lettuce, Imperial
Old Fashion Strawberry Shortcake, California
Fruit Punch, California

CRAB FLAKE COCKTAIL
Remove the meat from one large cooked California crab and fill all cocktail glasses two-thirds full with it; fill the glasses with a sauce made by mixing two finely chopped shallots with half a cup of finely chopped chow-chow, half a cup of chili sauce, half a cup of cream, and half a cup of cream. Chill all ingredients before serving.

RIPE OLIVES, MONTEREY
Remove the brine from one quart of California ripe olives and place in a clear water, drain dry and place in an earthenware dish with four cloves of chopped garlic and enough olive oil to cover. Let stand forty-eight hours in a cool place before using.

CHICKEN PIE, LOS ANGELES
For six people wash and cut in six pieces three young chickens and place the chicken pieces in a saucepan in which has been heated four tablespoons of butter, and fry quickly to a light brown on both sides. Have ready a large fireproof earthenware baking dish and place the fried chicken pieces in it, with a seasoning of paprika, and two sliced hard-boiled eggs, six slices fresh mushrooms, or one can of button mushrooms, four potatoes cut in thin slices, and six slices of fried onion cut in small pieces. Pour over the chicken one cup of brown gravy and cover the dish with rolled-out dough without dough brush with beaten egg and bake in a hot oven thirty minutes. Serve at table from baking dish.

ASPARAGUS MOUSSELAINE
Cut tender asparagus in short lengths and cook in boiling salted water until tender. Place two pieces of the cooked asparagus on each serving dish and cover the tip ends with a sauce made by blending four tablespoons of butter with four tablespoons of flour in a double boiler; when smooth stir in slowly, stirring constantly, one and one-third cups of chicken stock and three-quarters of a cup of cream. Bring to a boil and season with salt and pepper. Just before serving stir in the beaten yolks of three eggs and one tablespoon of lemon juice. Do not boil after adding the egg yolks.

LETTUCE SAUCE IMPERIAL
Remove the outer leaves from three firm heads of iceberg lettuce and wash in cold water, drain and cut the lettuce heads in quarters. On the serving plates place two quarters of lettuce and cover with a sauce made by mixing in a bowl rubbed with a clove of garlic, one tablespoon of oil, three tablespoons of tarragon vinegar, two-thirds of a cup of good olive oil, six drops of tobacco sauce, and a seasoning of salt and paprika.

CALF'S HEAD JELLY
R. M. S. Arroyo Grande, had some very nice dishes from the recipes published in this column, and the recipe for scrapple and wants a similar recipe for calf's head jelly. Have the butcher split open a cleaned calf's head and remove the nose, gristle, the eyes and ears. Wash the head thoroughly; remove the brains and tongue and set aside to be used later. Place the cleaned head in a pot and cover with cold water and bring to a boil; pour off the hot water and cover with cold water. When cold rub all over with lemon juice. Place in a pot and cover with hot water, add two tablespoons of vinegar or lemon juice, twelve pepper corns, one bay leaf, one sliced onion, one carrot and a sprig of parsley. Cover the pot and let simmer for three hours, or until the bones can be drawn from the meat. Remove the meat and cut in small pieces. Strain the stock in which the head was boiled and return to the fire and reduce one-third. Mix the pieces of calf's head with the reduced stock, season with salt and pepper. Pour into molds garnished with slices of lemon and bits of the tongue which has been boiled and chilled. Set in the ice box to harden.

RACK OF LAMB, CASSEROLE
M. L. L. City, the rack of lamb as served in the cafe you mention is baked in the oven and then placed with the vegetables and sauce in a casserole and served. Secure a piece of lamb rack, about six chops, and place in a baking pan the bottom of which has been lined with sliced carrot, onion and a few whole peppers. Season the rack with salt and pepper and place in a hot oven fifteen minutes. Place the cooked vegetables in a casserole. Add to the pan half a cup of stock and a teaspoon of meat extract, season, bring to a boil and strain over the meat and vegetables in the casserole.

Efficient Housekeeping

Now is the time to "put down" eggs for future use.

When the price of eggs is low, the thrifty housekeeper preserves them in either "water glass" or lime water, to use later on when prices are higher. April, May and June are the months when this preserving may be done.

The first step of the process is to select strictly fresh eggs. Seven dozen is a good amount to "put down" if your family is of moderate size—three to five members. The next step is to look the eggs over carefully for defects. Cracked ones may not be used. Badly soiled ones will spoil if you try to preserve them without first cleaning them. The best way to clean them is to wipe them with a soft cloth which has been dipped in cold vinegar. If the vinegar will not clean them, do not try to use the eggs. It is also best to secure eggs that are fresh—but few of use are able to observe this precaution.

The "water glass" method: The name "water glass" is a simple and more easily remembered substitute for the technical term, "sodium silicate." This substitute may be bought at any drug store. You need one pint of the "water glass" and four and one-half quarts of water. Bring this amount of water to a boil, then pour it into a three-gallon crock (which you have previously scalded out with boiling water and wiped dry) and let the hot water stand in this clean crock until it is cold. Now add to it the pint of "water glass," stir well, and place the eggs in this liquid. The liquid must stand two inches above the eggs. Cover airtight to prevent evaporation, and place the crock in your preserving closet—or in any cool, dry place. The lime water method: Bring five gallons of water to a boil and let it stand until cold. Then add to it 3 pounds of unsalted lime. Pour this solution over the eggs, which you have put into a crock cleaned as above directed, taking care to let the liquid rise above the eggs two inches. Cover the crock tightly, and store them in a cool, dry place. (If your family is small you had better divide this formula in half.)

Although both these methods will preserve eggs satisfactorily, I personally prefer the "water glass" method to the lime-water method. The eggs preserved by the lime-water method have a slight taste of lime about them. By either method, the preserved eggs should keep perfectly for at least six months, and many housekeepers have written me that they have kept their eggs even a year with perfect results, using both these methods.

I wish to advise brides and other young housekeepers to "take heed to this subject." Although it may be slight strains now on their pocketbooks, to buy a few dozen eggs more than they need to use at the present moment, still they will find that those eggs come in very handy next November, at Thanksgiving time, or around Christmas when all housekeepers need a generous supply of eggs for the holiday "goodies."

TWO GOOD SUPPER MENUS
The following two supper menus are composed of dishes for which some of my reader friends have sent me their "tried and true" recipes.

Stuffed Cold Meat
Tea With Southern Corn Bread Stuffed Baked Apples
Mustard sauce for any kind of cold meat: "One teaspoon of dry ground mustard, two teaspoons of sugar, one-fourth cup of granulated sugar, a pinch of salt, and a dash of white pepper. Mix these ingredients together, then wet to a paste with vinegar. Pour on a little boiling water (not putting the mixture over the fire) to thicken and wash the mustard and turp into a bowl. If too thick, thin with sweet or sour cream to the consistency of salad dressing. Serve with the meat."

Southern corn bread (Mrs. A. B.): "Put one quart of boiling hot water over one pint of Indian meal, and add a pinch of salt and one tablespoon of butter. Let stand till cold, then beat into it the yolks of three eggs and the three whites beaten separately, till very stiff. Bake forty minutes in a medium-hot oven. A quart of hot milk, instead of the quart of water, is an improvement."

Stuffed baked apples: "Boil together, until clear, one-half cup of sugar or corn syrup and one cup of water. Core the apples and fill the hole with either chopped nuts and chopped raisins (or simply the chopped raisins alone). Sprinkle the apples with ground cinnamon, and pour the syrup over all. Bake, after sticking the apples with a fork (to let steam escape), in a slow oven."

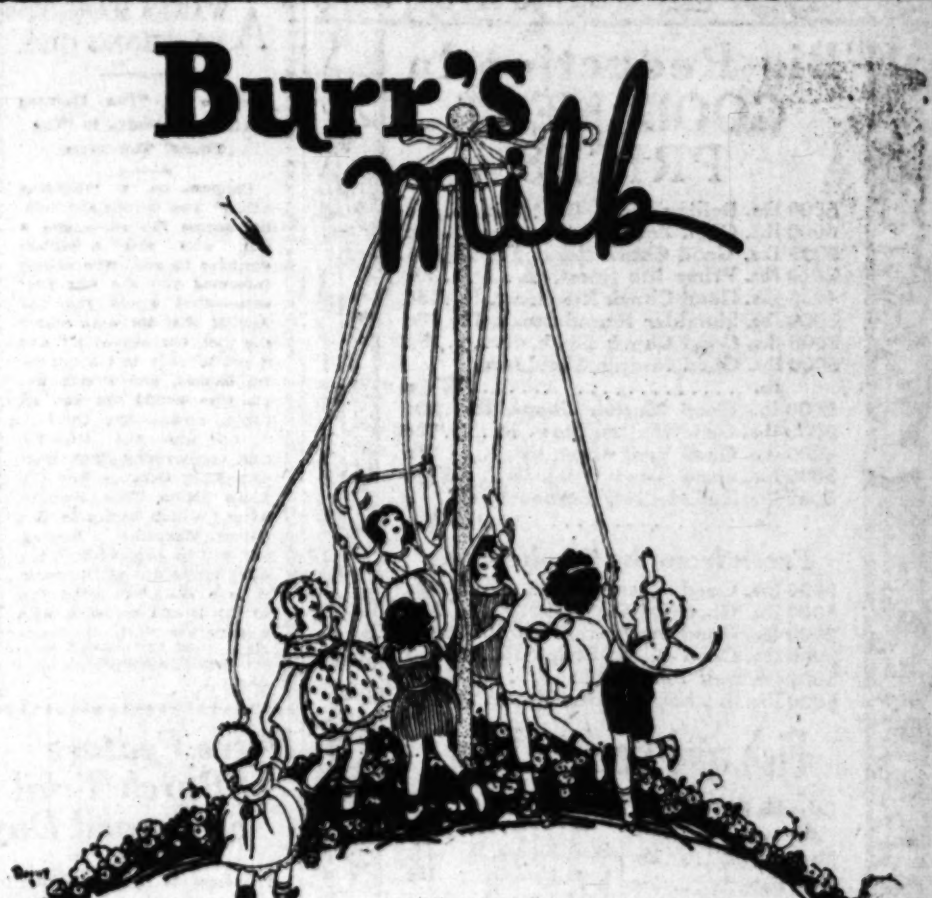

Spanish Rice
Cinnamon Cake Jam Honey Cakes

Spanish rice: "Put one pound of beef (round steak is the best cut to use in this way) through the meat grinder, and cook this chopped beef in a very little water. Strain the meat, and add to it, until the meat changes color. Then add to the pan one cup of cooked rice, one pint of canned tomatoes and salt and pepper to suit taste. Mix all well together and turn into a baking dish or casserole. Sprinkle the top with either bread or cracker crumbs, dot with small pieces of butter, and bake for one hour in a hot oven."

Cinnamon cake: "Mix and sift together one-half cup of sugar, one cup of flour, three teaspoons of baking powder and one-half teaspoon each of salt and ground cinnamon. Now make another mixture consisting of one egg, one-half cup of milk, and one heaping tablespoon of melted butter. Sprinkle on top a generous mixture of cinnamon and sugar. Bake about fifteen minutes in a hot oven. This is good either warm or cold."

Mock honey (Mrs. E. B.): "Take one pound of granulated sugar and one pint of buttermilk, and beat these together for two hours. After the first hour it begins to turn yellow, and when done it is the color of peanut butter."

Jam pudding: "Spread slices of stale bread with butter, then spread them thickly with preserves or jam. Beat one egg with one-half cup of sugar and pour this over the bread slices. Then add enough

A WAKES MARRIED TO WRONG GIRL

Supper on a "morning after" you awake and looking across the room saw a girl who was a perfect stranger to you, who had only informed you she was your wife—what would you do? And if she not only stated the fact, but proved it? And if you already had a beautiful fiancée, and a rich uncle who would out you off for a scrape like this?

That was the situation that faced young Buck MacArthur, in Orestes Roy Co-han's fiction "The Morning After," which begins in The Times Magazine Sunday and will be concluded in the daily issues during the week.

It is a story crammed full of thrills and suspense, with a generous dash of down-right good fun. Don't miss the opening installment, Sunday.

Notes Feature of Burch Trial on Second Day

The close of the second day of taking testimony in the murder trial of Arthur G. Burch, found the prosecution reading to the jury out of the mass of love letters and telegrams said to have been exchanged between Mrs. Madeline Burch and J. Belton Kennedy, during the period beginning April 23, 1917, until Kennedy's death last August.

William M. McLaughlin, manager of the local office of the Western Union, identified telegrams presented to him by Dep. Dist. Atty. Keyes, as messages having passed through his office, Milton Carlson, handwriting expert, was also called by the State.

J. D. Kennedy, the slain man's father, testified that the letters from Mrs. Burch to his son, were found by him in a safety-deposit box belonging to his son. The trial will be resumed Monday morning.

IMPRESSED BY RAISINS

Chef Gets Recipes From Experts Arranging Fresno's Celebration for the 27th Inst.

While in Fresno last week, Chef A. L. Wyman, M.C.A., was so impressed with the elaborate arrangements that are being made for the celebration of Raisin Day, the 27th inst., that he asked the chef of the Hotel Fresno if he had any new recipes to offer to the readers of his column. Some of the best follow:

SAUCE FOR BAKED CHICKEN

For Raisin Day dinner serve baked chicken with a sauce made by simmering in a porcelain dish for twenty minutes one cup of celery root peeled and cut in dice, half a teaspoon of coriander seeds, half a teaspoon of powdered sugar, one crushed clove of garlic, half a cup of parsley leaves, a bay leaf and one and a half cups of cider; keep covered while cooking. Add one cup of gravy from the pan that the chicken was baked in and the juice of one lemon. Strain and add a tablespoon of butter, the juice of one lemon, two tablespoons of orange juice and one cup of raisins. Heat and serve in a sauce boat.

RAISIN CHEESE

The English have a dish called raisin cheese that is served with wafers for tea. To make, place in a saucepan one pound of seeded raisins, one cup of sugar, two whole cloves, the juice of one orange and half a teaspoon of grated nutmeg; let simmer for one and a half hours. Garnish a glass dish with strips of candied peel and pour in the raisin mixture. Serve when cold.

RAISIN PUDDING

Soak six cups of bread crumbs with two cups of milk and add four tablespoons of finely chopped beef suet, five tablespoons of seedless raisins.

The Daily Fun Hour

BY HONOR WALSH

Matansy Blind

This ancient Scotch game has many variations. In the Isle of Skye version, the players join hands and do a skip-dance three times around in a circle, singing, "Here we go round a-jing-a-ring, jing-a-ring, jing-a-ring. Here we go round a-jing-a-ring, around the merry Matansy. Three times around, and then we fall."

Jing-a-ring, etc. "Fall" all stoop down and rise again. The last one up becomes Matansy, is blindfolded and led to the center of the circle. Then the others dance around again, singing, "Blindfold Matansy, dinna catch me! Blindfold Matansy, dinna catch me!"

Matansy then tries to catch one of the circling dancers and, if successful, the captives must become Matansy in turn, is blindfolded and takes the center, while the other joins the circle. It is not permitted to break the circle (unless hands) in order to evade capture.

As played in Inverness, Matansy goes to the center after the word "fall." Then the others dance around and sing repetition verses, of which the first lines are: 1. High gates till the bride comes in, each verse ending "Around the merry Matansy." At the end of the verse one, Matansy chooses a partner; at the end of verse two, partner; at the end of verse three, partner; after which the two return to the center and the blindfold players try to catch them. The first two captives become Matansy.

ESTABLISHED 1881
STORE FOR MEN

CREDIMUS

Being Hamburger's Creed For
Men's Better-Clothing-Values

We Believe we can do it! That is, we believe we can price our men's clothing so close to cost that the volume of business thus created, because of the best values in the city, will take care of the legitimate profit necessary to do business.

We Believe, in other words, that we can sell two suits at half the old profit (close as that has always been) where we sold one before and thus bring about a condition BETTER for our patrons and just as good for ourselves.

We believe so thoroughly in this possibility that we have stocked our men's clothing department 200 per cent heavier than last year and have placed a price on every suit and overcoat that is, we believe, indisputably the lowest price for like quality in Los Angeles.

We Believe the best way for you to thoroughly convince yourself of the above fact is to COMPARE---whether you buy here or not---in fact, the customer we like best is the man who comes here, goes elsewhere to see what they have, and then comes back.

It Takes a great buying strength to do what we have done---and therein comes the advantage of the many-sided institution---the institution that can prorate its overhead and gather its profits from many departments.

We Know there is no better clothing made than we carry---just now our stocks are the best they have ever been---bought from the best makers, designed by the best authorities---and STANDARDIZED to a point that makes for the finest production possible.

In Back of every suit is the Hamburger Guarantee---which promises complete satisfaction in every way or your money back without quibbling. Every inch of fabric used is ALL WOOL. every trimming carefully selected, every detail the best the money can buy.

We Have real clothing at real savings and we want every man to know it. We gained the co-operation of manufacturers and now we want the co-operation of the public. There is no reason to waste money on clothing---you CANT waste it here. Come and see!

Learn our Slogan, which is "Specialized Prices on Standardized Clothes"---learn what it means. We want you to know. First floor department---separate entrance on Eighth and Hill streets. Come in---we believe you will like us.
